PRISON MUTINY DEATH TOLL NOW STANDS AT TEN

Six Guards and Four Convicts
Victims of Serious
Uprising

NOW UNDER CONTROL

Desperate Ringleaders Butcher Guards Held As Hostages

CANON CITY, Oct. 4.—(INS)—At 5 o'clock this morning a short respite was called in the warfare raging at the State Prison here, where several hundred convicts are in mutiny.

The known death toll in the warfare is ten—six prison guards and four convicts.

Several other guards and officers on the outside were wounded.

Jimmy Pardue, co-conspirator with Danny Daniels, is believed to be dead also but his body was not recovered by the first exploration party to enter cell house No. 3.

Officers had complete control of the situation at 6 o'clock and had started investigations to determine the exact death list and property damage, the latter being estimated at more than $500,000.

Daniels took his own life after he had led an all night battle against hundreds of militiamen, prison guards and peace officers who fired thousands of machine gun and rifle shots, laid dynamite charges and barrages of tear gas in an effort to dislodge the rebellious prisoners from cell house No. 3.

Desperate ringleaders of the mutinous prisoners butchered guards they held as hostages as officers battled with dynamite, machine guns, rifle barrages and tear bomb attacks in an effort to force the desperate ringleaders from Block Three.

Approximately 170 prisoners, in addition to the ringleaders, were in the cell house, but were taking no part in the furious battle.

Battling continued all night, following refusal of Warden Crawford to accept demands of the ringleaders that he furnish automobiles for them to make a "free getaway" from the city.

The convicts had sent a note to the warden declaring they would kill all of the guards they held as hostages unless their demand were met.

Of the original twelve guards captured by the convicts in the first outbreak all but two have been accounted for—seven are dead and three seriously wounded. The last two guards to emerge from cell house No. 3 declared one convict, Jimmy Pardue, who precipitated the riot by shooting and killing a guard at the noon meal yesterday, was dead—battered by a fellow leader, Danny Daniels.

The two guards said two other convicts were believed to be dead on the upper tier of the cell house.

Scenes reminiscent of the World War western front were enacted at the penitentiary throughout the night. Sixty-three national guardsmen manning two machine guns kept up a constant attack on Cell House Three; hundreds of other guardsmen, penitentiary guards, police and sheriffs' officers from a dozen Colorado cities poured rifle fire into the doors and windows of the cell house in response to the ultimatum of the convicts that they be given opportunity to escape.

Head of Manufacturers Says
Industry is Being Held
Up in America

SPIRIT OF UNCERTAINTY

(Following is one of a series of articles by W. S. Cousins, International News Service Financial Editor, on this fall business outlook.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—A speedy clearing of the Congressional decks of the tariff bill will be one of the quickest and surest means of allowing all industry to forge ahead with renewed vigor and confidence," said John E. Edgerton, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, in discussing the business outlook for International News Service today.

Mr. Edgerton stated that in his recent trips across the country he has encountered considerable uncertainty and faltering in industrial activity, occasioned by discussion of the tariff bill. His personal viewpoints and observations, he said, are paralleled in almost every instance by reports coming to him from various industrial sections west of the Mississippi.

"While I find surface indications strongly favorable to good business—that production has increased, that consumption has kept pace with it and is keeping pace with it, that the fall activities are promising to take up much of the summer seasonal recession, I have found, and am finding on all sides, a wide uncertainty and faltering in industrial activity and plans for the future, occasioned by the national disturbance centering around one economic problem, the tariff bill at Washington," Mr. Edgerton emphatically declared.

"For nearly six months this vital question has been on the political operating table, while the legislative physicians have haggled over a correct diagnosis and the proper treatment," said the head of the manufacturers' association. "American industry, which pays nearly 60 per cent of the Federal taxes, is waiting with growing anxiety for Congress to take action; and that uncertainty is reflected all down the line from employer to employee, both of whom will be affected by the legislative decision."

Industry today is marking time involuntarily and in many instances plans for industrial expansions and (Continued on Page Six)

First Woman Speaker of the House

Mrs. Edith Nourse Rogers, Republican Congresswoman from Massachusetts, had the signal honor of being the first woman speaker of the House of Representatives, when she received written authorization from Speaker Longworth to preside pro-tem in his absence.

INSPECTION OF AUTOS IS NOW REQUIRED

Campaign Started October 1;
Will Close November
Fifteenth

WILL ENFORCE THE LAW

Sergeant James J. Tooley, who some weeks ago was placed in command of a group of State highway patrol substations in this part of the State, calls attention to the importance of all motorists having their machines tested and inspected during the safety campaign which began on October 1, and continues until November 15.

It was explained by Sergeant Tooley that Governor John S. Fisher had issued a proclamation that this safety campaign be inaugurated for the purpose of having machines in first class condition, the ultimate aim being to prevent accidents on the highways.

This proclamation makes it compulsory by law to have the machines inspected, after which the owners of the cars will be provided with stickers to be placed on the windshields. When the officers see these stickers they will know immediately that these cars have been placed in proper condition.

Sergeant Tooley during the past few weeks has engaged his patrolmen to inspect practically all garages in his territory. Some of them have been found inadequate and as a result they will not be permitted to inspect the cars, but the commanding officer announced that there are about 100 garages in the county, to whom the owners of cars can go to have their automobiles inspected and repaired if necessary.

Mechanics at these garages will inspect lights, horns, steering apparatus, mirrors, wind shield wipers and the brakes. If defects are found, repairs will be made.

Several years ago a similar campaign was inaugurated, but at that time many of the owners of garages are alleged to have presented the owners of cars with stickers without having inspected the cars. Sergeant Tooley explained that this cannot be done during this campaign. Every motorist will be compelled to have his car inspected.

Any garage mechanic who will have been found to have given the owner of a car a sticker without having had his car inspected will be subject to a fine of $10, while the owner of a garage guilty of the same offense will be subject to a fine of $50.

Sergeant Tooley explained that owners of the cars are privileged to take their cars to any garage they please, whether in their home town or in any other part of the State. This campaign, he stated, will be carried out strictly to the letter.

MOOSE HUNTERS TELL OF THEIR RECENT TRIP

Frank Pfeifer, Dr. H. Doyle
Webb and Asa Fabian Give Pleasing Discourses

SERVICE CLUBS DINE

Three Bristol sportsmen last night provided moose meat in sufficient quantity for a moose dinner which was enjoyed by about 50 members of the Exchange and Rotary clubs of Bristol.

The three successful hunters, Frank Pfeifer, Dr. H. Doyle Webb and Asa Fabian, returned last week from a trip into northwestern Canada. They had gone into Canada on a gunning trip for the first time and had eagerly anticipated the journey. Their success in each bagging a moose was beyond their expectation and at once they decided that enough of the choice animals should be brought back to Bristol and served at a joint dinner for the Rotarians and Exchanges.

The members of the two service clubs gathered in the Elks' Home at six o'clock and partook of a menu consisting of oyster cocktail, mock-turtle soup, moose steak, celery, olives, potatoes, lima beans, coffee and French pastry.

At the conclusion of the dinner all adjourned to the social session room where the three hunters related their experiences on the trip. The talks were interesting and much enjoyed. Burgess Clifford L. Anderson gave a brief description of a hunting trip he had in Canada after moose, but the trip was unsuccessful, he said. He also gave some experiences of his deer hunting expeditions.

Asa Fabian, president of the Exchange Club, presided, and the singing was led by Andrew MacArthur.

The trip into Canada by Pfeifer, Webb and Fabian was arranged by Dr. Webb through G. W. Foss, Parent, Quebec, Province, Canada. Mr. Foss attended to all details and according to the Bristol trio he certainly mapped out a fine trip and one which it would be difficult to surpass.

Leaving Bristol September 8th the trio went to Trenton where they took a train for Montreal, Canada. From Montreal they went to Parent and from there started out for the Canadian wilds. The first part of the trip was made in wagons over the roughest kinds of roads and much of the distance was traveled on foot. Eight and one-half miles was covered the first day in nine and a half hours. The roads were in such bad condition that one of the teamsters quit and would not drive his horses further.

Upon arriving at the Gatheneau River the trio were met by their Indian guides and from this point on it was one continuous round of thrills and a journey through a country which had been particularly favored by nature in so far as beautification goes.

Most or in fact all of the hunting was done from the huge lakes such as Duck Lake and others. The hunters rode in canoes and hunted the moose around the edges of the lakes as they came down to water.

The skillfulness of the Indian guides in guiding the canoes through the rapids and in pitching tents and making beds of spruce boughs was very well explained by the three Bristol men as each one took his turn in telling about the trip.

Frank Pfeifer was the first speaker and he described the trip from the point of beginning to the time he got his moose. He was the first one of the party to meet with success. From this point on Dr. Webb took up the story and vividly described the country through which the trip was made. He told of the hugeness of the section, explained why the hunting was done

U. S. Court Decision Hampers Prohibition

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4.—(INS)—The decision of the U. S. Court of Appeals here that purchasers of illicit liquor are immune from punishment under any and all circumstances even when liquor is delivered at their request was regarded today as making the task of prohibition enforcement officials doubly more difficult.

The decision, handed down by a two to one vote here late yesterday, upset the verdict of Federal Judge William H. Kirkpatrick of the U. S. District Court here of December 27th last in the case of Alfred E. Norris, prominent New York clubman and broker. Judge Kirkpatrick had ruled Norris, a self-admitted customer of Joel D. Kerper, Philadelphia society bootlegger, was guilty of conspiracy to transport by ordering liquor from Kerper.

He fined Norris $200. The opinion of the higher court not only clears Norris of complicity but halts the attempt of Federal enforcement officials to extend their jurisdiction over the buyers as well as sellers of illicit booze.

Kerper, it was brought out at the trial, had been selling illicit liquor to society persons in New York, Boston, Newport, Washington and Baltimore, besides his customers in Philadelphia. He pleaded guilty before Judge Kirkpatrick and was fined $20,000 and sent to the Federal Penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., for 15 months.

BRISTOL TWP. CONSIDERS BUILDING A NEW SCHOOL

Growth in Number of Residents at West Bristol is Noted

GIVE BUS CONTRACT

Meeting of Bristol Township School Board was held last evening with a one hundred per cent attendance on the part of the members of the board. Routine business was transacted and a contract entered into with John New, Middletown Township, to transport all pupils who have to be transported.

The board also gave considerable consideration to building a new school house on the Newportville Road, opposite Laing's Gardens. A growth in the number of residents in this section of the township has for some time impressed the necessity for additional school facilities upon the attention of the board, and recently land was purchased for future use.

The board is considering plans for the building and now has the same under consideration with the state educational department.

Search for Man Who Will Inherit Fortune

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 3.—(INS)—With a $650,000 fortune at stake search was started today for a baby, born in secret, 33 years ago in a private hospital at Washington, D. C.

Vice-Chancellor Malcolm E. Buchanan signed an order authorizing the Bankers Trust Company of Newark to search for the man, who was given into the custody of friends at the time of his birth, with positive instructions that his identity never be revealed.

If the man is found he will inherit half of $650,000 left in a trust fund. If he is not, his cousin will receive the whole estate.

In a 43-page application, the Trust Company asked that it be allowed to institute search for the son of Mrs. Florence E. Geogier, daughter of William E. Emery, wealthy Flemington farmer.

Emery died in 1912 and his will created a $650,000 trust fund to be administered for the benefit of his wife and daughters until the wife, Mrs. Elizabeth S. Emery died and then divided between the two daughters, May E. Cornelius of England and Florence Geogier.

NEWTOWN SCOUTS, WINNING CONTEST, ARE ENTERTAINED

Group Won "Greatest Mileage Contest" Recently; Have Dinner

SIXTEEN IN THE GROUP

Arrangements Concluded For
The Big Football Game

What a feed it was that was placed before the Scouts of Newtown No. 2 on Monday evening at the Brick Hotel for their successful winning of the "greatest mileage contest" to the Boy Scout Day parade at the Perkase 50th Anniversary Week!

The sixteen scouts, Dr. A. J. Strathie, chairman of the troop committee, and Scout Executive Livermore enjoyed one of the Brick Hotel's famous "roast beef dinners."

The deputy commissioners of the scout council in session as the troop organization committee met at county scout headquarters on Thursday to review the condition of the scout troops, and plan for general improvement throughout the troop organization. A number of new troop organizations were planned, the fall activities program was thoroughly discussed with a number of minor readjustments to the present "layout" for the scout meets in November. The deputy commissioners, Burtonwood, Leake, Burgess, Bucher and Lane, have made another 100% meeting for their committee record. After the meeting the commissioners visited the Doylestown Fair and viewed the Boy Scout exhibit.

Chairman Thomas Ross, of the Activities Committee, has concluded final arrangements with the Princeton University Athletic Association for 1901 scouts, seascouts and leaders to attend the Princeton University and Lehigh University game on November 9th. All cars will be assembled at the same spot as of last year at 1 p. m. sharp. Late arrivals or scouts not in official scout uniform of breeches, belt, shirt, neckerchief, slide and hat will not be permitted in the stadium until the second half. Scouts without any uniform will not be permitted at all. Reservations for seats will be sent to all troops and ships this week. It is necessary that the chairman of troop and ship committees personally agree to provide transportation for the members of his unit. The game with Washington & Lee last year was a "hummer" and with the record that Lehigh has made so far this year everyone should have a "great day." District scout meets will be held at 2 p. m. as follows: District 4 (North Penn Valley) on Saturday, October 26th, at the Sellersville Community Playground; District 3 (Middle Bucks) on Saturday, November 2, at the Doylestown High School Playground; District 5 (West Bucks) on Saturday, November 16, at the Southampton High School Playground; District 2 (Delaware Valley) on Saturday, November 23, at the Langhorne-Middletown High School Field; and District 1 (Lower Bucks) on Saturday, November 30, at the Bristol High School Field.

December 7th being the boy scout day will be as before the "greatest day in the year" to everyone interested in scouting and its success in the county.

WHAT MAKES PROSPERITY

Where there's smoke there's money, runs a saying that is probably as old as the first factory town and the modern industrial system.

Ever since the United States evolved from an agricultural into a predominantly industrial nation the public has associated community prosperity with belching smoke stacks and wealth with manufacturing towns. And, by the same token, factory chimneys without smoke have come to mean hard times.

Communities which aspire to a large population and general prosperity contrive to attract industries because they know that factories bring labor and labor, with the aid of factory wages, creates business. Only those few communities strategically situated in unusually rich agricultural sections can "live" on agriculture alone and even these agricultural centers are gradually turning to industry.

Those cities and towns are most consistently prosperous that draw their business from both industry and agriculture and that are labor sources for both industry and agriculture. Diversification of trade and labor are the best guaranty of business stability.

Although this country is becoming more and more dominated by industry, as new factories spring up overnight and old factories are enlarged, the adage, "Where there's smoke there's money," is rapidly becoming meaningless through the development and extension of smoke control. Communities are learning that factories are indispensable but that smoking chimneys are not only dispensable but preventable and, more than that, costly to their owners and to the public.

MAN ALWAYS DARES

Alexander of Macedon grieved through fear that his father would conquer all the world, leaving no adventurous conquests for him. Hundreds of generations have smiled at the fatuity of the young prince with his world limited to such a small portion of the earth.

As time went on, land and sea were explored until, in our own time, many youth has sighed, saying adventure was gone.

But now, to land and sea, has been added the air as fresh field for exploration, subjugation, adventure. Exploration of the air is going on all over the world, making hitherto inaccessible places accessible, bringing people closer together. It would be a foolhardy man today who would sigh with the young Macedonian prince that adventure ever will be dead. With possibilities of adventure in the air exhausted, restless, daring man will find other ways and other means to adventure.

Some men reach the age of discretion too late in life to be able to appreciate it.

Women formerly wore the wedding ring on the thumb, now they wear the husband under it.

The man who is out of harmony with his relatives probably has either money or a bad disposition.

There are too many persons who imagine they are doing well when they are doing others.

A girl may be said to be in love with a young man if she is willing to accept a porch swing as a substitute for an automobile.

Better Transportation Service for Lower Bucks County

The Delaware River Coach Company has begun operating bus service between Morrisville and Torresdale, supplementing and broadening the trolley service.

Comfortable, safe, speedy buses and courteous attendants will make this new service popular; we are sure.

Transportation service is now being given parts of Bristol and Croydon that heretofore have been without it.

The number of buses in operation will be increased in the near future, and every effort will be made to make the service fit the needs of the communities.

At present buses leave Morrisville for Torresdale at 5 minutes before every odd hour from 6.55 A. M. to 8.55 P. M., the last bus leaving at 10.45 P. M.

The first bus for Morrisville leaves Bath and Otter Streets, Bristol, at 6.25 A. M., 8.08 A. M., and then every two hours. Last bus at 10.08 P. M. From Torresdale buses will leave at 15 minutes before every even hour, from 7.45 A. M. to 9.45 P. M.

The fare from Morrisville to Torresdale is 60 cents. Passengers may ride between any point in Croydon and any point in Bristol for 10c, and between upper Tullytown and Bristol for 10c.

Time cards will be printed later and posted in convenient places.

ROCK CAMP, W. Va., Oct. 3—(INS)—This little town of 100 people boasts of the oldest postmaster, or, rather, postmistress, in point of service and possibly in years in the United States.

Vicks Now Passes 26 Million Yearly!

More and More Millions Follow Trend of Modern Medicine and Treat Colds Externally

To keep pace with the ever-growing demand for Vicks VapoRub, the external treatment for colds, another increase is being made in the figure of the Vicks slogan, made famous when Vicks reached "17 Million Jars Used Yearly."

Only a short time ago, the well known "17 Million" was raised to "21 Million." Again this figure has been outgrown, as more and more people turn to this better way of treating colds. There are now "Over 26 Million Jars Used Yearly"—a far for every family in the United States.

A generation ago, when Vicks was originated, the idea of treating colds without "dosing" was almost unheard of. Today, the whole trend of medical practice is away from needless "dosing."

Mothers especially have appreciated this modern vaporizing ointment, because it checks colds without risk of upsetting children's delicate stomachs.

And so Vicks spread, until today it has become the family standby for colds—adults as well as children's—in more than 60 countries.

(Adv.)

Mrs. Harvey received the appointment 54 years ago after a spirited contest with another lady of the village. There were two factions in the village and the politicians were drawn into the contention. Few women at that time were "given" postoffices and her appointment was a departure from custom.

Rock Camp is a little village on the highway between Peterstown and Union, and on the route between Bluefield and White Sulphur. It is an old village, having been on the map nearly 100 years. It has about 100 population, several general stores, garages, and the famous postoffice, located in a room of a one-story house on a bank above the highway which runs through the town.

ST. ANN'S WILL PLAY
VENANGO BEARS HERE

By T. M. Juno

More thrills and exciting moments are in store for the Bristol gridiron fans on Sunday at Sullivan's Field when the football eleven representing Bristol, St. Ann's, will tackle the Venango Bears.

Last week the Bristol lads tied the Richmond Wildcats on its famous "fuzzy" formation when Seneca carried the ball forty yards for a touchdown.

The Bears come here with a city-wide reputation. The team is one of the most dangerous clubs in Philadelphia and many teams hide behind the bush when this club begins to defy them.

The team is managed by none other than "Bob" Butts, who needs no introduction to the local followers of sports. At one time during the war Bob played first base for the Bridesburg baseball team and later was with the Merchants' Shipbuilding Corporation on the old field at Bloomsdale.

Butts has just returned from a scouting trip for gridiron stars and thus far has signed Johnny Kurtz, former Germantown High, end; Chapple Blicher, another wing from Manayunk, and El Purnell, one time Virginia Polytechnic Institute halfback.

The remainder of the Bears' squad is composed of veterans with Allen, Mulrine, Parker, Morlock, M. Kravel, F. Kravel, Doyle, Huntley, Carlson and Kennedy, the line is cared for. Mish, Dietz, Brenner, Gommel, Dunn and Sterling are the backs.

The "Saints" were well pleased with the showing they made in the first game. The boys had little practice and tired very quickly. But this week the boys are all in good condition and despite the rain have been practicing. St. Ann's "gym" being the factor here.

Coach Fred Pico has signed Frank Cook, former Bristol A. A. halfback, and before next week expects Hutton, the colored boy, and Dugan, the A. A. tackle, on his list.

The mentor was impressed with the showing of Kornstedt and Seneca, two of his linemen. Both made big holes in the line and broke through to make some very helpful tackles. Roe, Gildardi and Stallone, formed the wing attack and each did their share. The backs and rest of the line and backs all were good, especially J. S. Fine.

"Gene" Spadaccino, who crashed into the sideline benches after being tackled on an end run last week, is not hurt as bad as it was thought. "Spade" will not be available for duty this week, but the former Bristol High captain, promises to show his wares the following week.

The football team members are requested to meet in the St. Ann's club rooms after the game Sunday, where a surprise is in store.

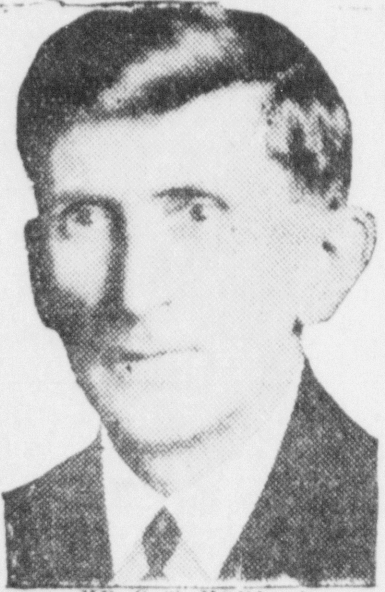

Game begins at 2.30 p. m.

DREAD NEURITIS FINDS ENEMY IN FAMOUS KONOLA

Suffered the Agony of Neuritis
For Two Years, Then New Konjola Scored

MR. C. E. HORNER

"For two years I suffered the dread agony and pain of neuritis," said Mr. C. E. Horner, 307 Pine street, Johnstown, Penna. "My arms were so sore and stiff that I could hardly raise them above my shoulders. After awhile the dreaded pains started through my entire body, down into my limbs. The calf and ankle of both legs were so sore that I could hardly touch them. I tried many remedies but nothing seemingly would give me any relief.

"I noticed where a lady here, having the same affliction, had obtained such wonderful results from Konjola, so I decided to give it a trial. A full treatment, just six bottles, have made a wonderful change in my condition. The terrific pains have vanished, the dull aching soreness over my entire body has left me. I am entirely free from pain. I am able to enjoy a sound night's rest and awaken in the morning feeling greatly refreshed, ready for a day's work."

Konjola is sold in Bristol at Hoffman's Cut Rate store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—(Adv.)

ST. ANN'S PLAYERS, NOTICE!

Final practice for the Venango Bears game will be held tonight. Coach Pico wants all players to report at the club rooms at 6.30 p. m.

Moose Hunters Tell
Of Their Recent Trip

from the water rather than through the bush. The vegetation is so wild and of such thick growth that it is impossible to tramp through it. Men, said the speaker, would sink down to their knees in the growth. Dr. Webb was the second one of the group to kill a moose.

Asa Fabian was the third and last of the party to make his kill and his moose was the largest one shot, and he also caught the largest fish.

The trip had its hardships as well as its pleasant aspects, and one of the pests encountered was the black fly. These insects took a liking to Frank Pfeiler and were particularly partial to him. His eyes, ears and hands swelled on the first day out to almost twice their normal size.

The strength of the Indian guides and the big loads which they carried was explained by the speakers, and it would appear as though the Indians had almost superhuman strength.

Ernest Camble favored with a number of vocal selections which were thoroughly enjoyed.

Settle Tariff Now;
Business Will Prosper

extensions are being held up, according to Mr. Edgerton's observation. Every day of this uncertainty witnesses the further slowing up of our economie pace, for there are few things with which it is more difficult to cope than the uncertainty of political action upon a basic economic issue.

The National Association of Manufacturers, Mr. Edgerton declared, is heartily in favor of the flexible provisions of the administrative sections of the pending tariff bill, believing that all of the departures from the present methods embodied in the new proposal are absolutely essential to our further industrial progress and economic well-being. It is the belief and conviction of the manufacturers of the United States that these proposals contain nothing which any man of either of the major political parties cannot support consistently with platforms upon which they were elected.

The United States today has attained the most eminent position of all nations in the world in industry and international strength, but this affluent position cannot be sustained unless the same or increasing intelligence is applied to build progressively for the immediate future and the coming generations, Mr. Edgerton declared.

"Few persons can deny that the United States leads or is abreast of the leader in every line of modern development," said Edgerton. "It's public and private planes of living are below none; its arts and diversions are of the highest level of all; its public health services are supreme in the international code; its transportation systems furnish the greatest convenience and comforts; its working people are fortunate in matter of wages, living conditions and luxuries to a degree not enjoyed by the people of other lands. To continue to enjoy these material blessings we must build wisely and securely for the future.
